

Special Clearance Sale

FINE WINES AND LIQUORS

We are over-stocked in every department and have more goods now due, so must sell large quantities before the new stock arrives. In order to do this we have taken the right time—the time when a 'XMAS CASE' of pure liquors will be appreciated, and have reduced the prices so as to make it a special object to buy from us. No customer can buy poor goods at our place. We do not keep them. Our stock is the best and with these special offers we expect to have a large selling. Sale continues until January 1st, and it is to your advantage as well as ours to take advantage of it.

AORANGI REPORTS SIGNS OF TROUBLE

The steamer Aorangi arrived from the Colonies last evening ahead of schedule time. Captain Phillips, formerly of the steamer Warrimoo, is in command of the Aorangi this trip as Captain Hay her former commander has accepted the position of assistant harbor master at Sydney. Pursuer F. E. Bellmaine formerly of the Warrimoo has been placed in the position made vacant on the vessel by the resignation of Mr. Mason. He makes the following report of the vessel's trip: After a smart passage from Australia, the Royal Mail steamer Aorangi, J. D. S. Phillips, commander, arrived at Honolulu at 8 p. m., December 17. Left Sydney at 2 p. m., Dec. 2, and meeting with fair weather on the Australian coast, arrived at Brisbane, Queensland, at 7 a. m., 4th inst.; proceeded on voyage at 1 a. m., 7th inst. and experienced fair weather with smooth seas throughout. Sighted the Torres group on the 9th, and passed close to Aorangi Island at noon, 12th inst., arriving at Honolulu as above.

The ship's officers report that two days from this port an overturned ship's boat and a spar were passed floating in the water. As no other wreckage was seen it is thought that some vessel had had trouble with the bad weather prevailing here for some time and lost some of her fittings. Last evening the sea was very rough and one but Pilot Macaulay was able to get aboard the vessel. The doctor who is a new man to the business sent word to bring the steamer inside and he boarded her before she had come alongside the wharf.

WHITE KING OF YAP SAID TO BE DEAD

Savannah, Ga., Dec. 6.—Mrs. Catherine O'Keefe of this city received today a letter from Joseph Michaels of Yap, Caroline Islands, advising her of the probable loss at sea of her husband, Captain David B. O'Keefe, and the fact that he had left property worth $1,000,000. Michaels has applied to the American Consul at Hongkong to protect O'Keefe's property. Mrs. O'Keefe has engaged a law firm here to look out for her interests. David O'Keefe was known in the Oriental trade as "King" O'Keefe of Yap, which island he virtually owned. When O'Keefe landed at Yap thirty years ago the cannibal natives thought him a demi-god on account of his white skin, and made him their King. He built up a profitable trade to Hongkong, and owned two barkers that traded between the Carolines and Chinese ports. Last June he went with O'Keefe and other native products to Hongkong, from which point he sent his wife in this city a check for $100. After leaving Hongkong the vessel disappeared and is supposed to have been lost in a storm. King O'Keefe was 55 years of age and a native of this city.

The Aorangi brought no passengers for this port but many will leave for the Sound in her this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. H. C. Brown, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., returned from Hawaii in the Mauna Loa yesterday after a pleasant visit of a fortnight or so in North and South Korea. She brought back with her a number of Hawaiian curios which she collected at various places of historical interest.

Joyful News for Weak Men

To Men Who Have Been Robbed by Quacks. To Men who have Drugged in Vain. To Men who have lost Faith in Everything. To men who are weak and debilitated, not only from the effects of a drain upon the vitality, but from excessive drinking, from ruining the most delicate organs of the body with poisonous chemicals; to men whose faith in doctors and remedies of all kinds has been destroyed by the failure of every remedy that has been tried—to all men who are sick of medicines which never cure, I say

Stop Drugging! Stop Drugging Yourself.

Nature calls for new strength, and you will never be cured until you supply that strength. This is not found in drugs, all of which are temporary stimulants. The real strength of the nerves and vital organs is electricity. That is what the body has lost, and what it must get back. My supplies this. It is an absolutely positive cure for all forms of Nervous Debility. Loss of Memory, Losses, Impotency, Varicocele, Weak Stomach, and all those physical and vital Weaknesses, Confusion of Ideas, Kidney and allied complaints, Rheumatism, Sciatica, etc., etc. It has cured thousands every year after every other known remedy has failed.
